GOOD MORNING OPTIMISTS!!

Today's Greeters

Members and guests were greeted this morning by Gary Strowbridge and Aaron Hersch.

Invocation and Pledge

President Phil Perington calls the meeting to order. Ralph Pedersen gave the invocation this morning. Ralph talks about the decision to talk health, happiness, and prosperity to every person we meet. These topics are also important to discuss with young people. Our words do make a huge impression to others about how we live our lives. He then led us in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Welcome Guests!

Guests this morning include Frank Middleton's son Scott, who thought he was going to have a quiet Friday morning, but he certainly started it out right by coming to our meeting. Thanks Scott! The next guest we met was Mike Chavez who became interested in the club after meeting Harry Johnson in a local restaurant and getting some good information regarding MSOC.

Announcements

The club received a very nice Thank You card from Mental Health Center of Denver. They thanked the club for the donations we provided.

Gary Laman reminded us that the kids and grandkids breakfast will be one week from today—Friday, December 26th. Good reports on the scheduled entertainment for that date will be enjoyed by all.

Karl Geil gives the reminder for the Brain Bowl. Please review dates for training for those hoping to become Alex Trebek types. This is one of the largest projects for the Optimist International clubs in the Colorado-Wyoming District, so please sign up and help MSOC. Upcoming Brain Bowl Competition, Saturday, January 24th at Fairview High School in Boulder, and Saturday, February 7th at Overland High School. The third installment will be Saturday, April 11th at University of the Rockies in Colorado Springs. Reader training for this event is mandatory, but there is a fast track available for veterans.

Training sessions are set for:

- Saturday, January 17th @ 9 am, Valmont Church in Boulder
- Thursday, January 22nd @ 6:30 pm, Overland High School, and
- Saturday, January 31st @ 9 am at Overland High School.

Paul Bernard attended the Cherry Creek High School Craft Fair featuring vision impaired students. He was impressed by their talents and said it was a great socialization opportunity for some great kids. This sounds like an event worth getting involved in!

Meeting Place
American Legion Hall Post 1
5400 East Yale Avenue (Yale & I-25), Denver, Colorado
Every Friday Morning, 7:00 – 8:00 am

Announcements continued

Ron Cisco updated us on the second round of the Great Chili Cook Off, which took place last Saturday at the Tree lot. Saturday was also the day Santa made his first visit and with blue skies and mild temperatures, the kids were able to enjoy their time with the bearded one. Your editor's 5 year old was able to tell "Santa's substitute" about the catcher's mask he wants so badly. Back to the chili, after tasting the fare, and some re-tasting Greg Young is announced as the winner. Fine Job Greg!

With announcements completed, Santa arrived, aka Oscar Sorensen, and the annual White Elephant Christmas extravaganza was under way. Santa has long blond hair this year that flowed beneath his stylish cap. He appears healthy and as sharp mentally as can be recalled. He commented on how happy he was to be back with MSOC and assured us he had ample time to reward all the good lads.

Santa started out by rewarding those who had to leave early. Quickly Todd Olson was ushered up to receive his 4-foot tall lava lamp. Beautifully received and given, and in the spirit of the season a sense of calm came over the room as Santa called up one after the other to see what reward each would have for a year well spent. Don Iley received two tiny fold out chairs, perfect for resting the body after a long day of hiking. Which is to say, they each might accommodate the left and right cheek if used together. Bob Hugo received a "go go" Santa that looked just right.

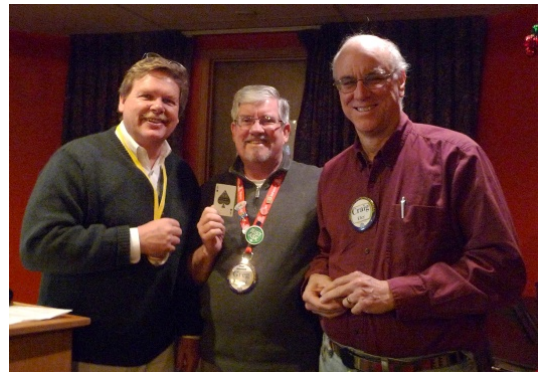

One-by-one members, were treated to succinct commentary and sage advice as Santa regaled us with stories of adventures past. He seemed as though he knew each member intimately and took great care in their well being. This is no better demonstrated by the gift Ron Cisco received. The book, entitled "Sex After 60" appeared magically to help what might ail an otherwise erstwhile traveler or even the odd MSOC member. Ron left Santa anxious for events to unfold. Doug Morton, dressed nattily in a snappy sweater, received his gift with such enthusiasm, it was deposited directly after opening.

In short, the event was a huge success. Santa was able to lift the room's spirit and holiday resolve. So long Santa, and healthy travels!

Cy Regan reported on Grocery Card sales of $1,675.00 this week. That was a pretty good number and Cy seemed happy if not a bit distracted after Santa's visit.

Tree lot update. (Written by Joe Marci) Despite the cold weather, the Tree Lot has enjoyed brisk sales this past week. We expect to sell all the remaining trees in the next 3 to 4 days. Ninety-three (93) different members have worked so far at the lot, as well as 15 student volunteers from George Washington and Thomas Jefferson High Schools. The lot has really been helped by the 11 Tamarac Optimists who priced trees after the 2 loads were delivered. Thanks to all who have made this another successful fundraiser!

After thirteen weeks of no one winning the notorious Monaco South Pot Greg Young had a chance to draw by wearing his MSOC name tag. He pulled the Ace of Spades thanks to the assistance of

Craig Eley, who drew Greg's name, President Phil Perington, who held the name jar, Ron Cisco, who shuffled the 41-card deck of cards, and John Young, who provided ongoing encouragement.

REMEMBER THIS AT CHRISTMAS TIME

According to the Alaska Department of Fish and Game, while both male and female reindeer grow antlers in the summer each year, male reindeer drop their antlers at the beginning of winter, usually late November to mid-December. Female reindeer retain their antlers till after they give birth in the spring. Therefore, according to EVERY historical rendition depicting Santa's reindeer, EVERY single one of them, from Rudolph to Blitzen, had to be a girl.

We should remember this when they are assisting us to find the way!

Pictures of the Week

Joe Marci, on left, captain of the tree lot and Elton Strong look over the progress at this years tree lot.

Craig Eley and Santa try to attracting customers for the tree lot and for photo ops with Saint Nicholas, Father Christmas, or Kris Kringle.

Another Santa, Russ Paul, enjoyed his warm sunny day and the Christmas Holiday environment.

Santa, Howard Fry, with one of our customers.

Cy Regan tries to keep up with sales as the chief cashier.

THE OPTIMIST CREED — Promise Yourself . . .

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
 To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
 To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
 To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
 To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and to expect only the best.
 To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
 To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
 To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
 To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
