Good Morning Optimist

Greeters Jim VanderKamp and Barry Barker extended their hand of Optimist friendship as our weekly meeting began promptly at 7:00 with President Paul "Rhymin" Simon striking the bell. We heard an invocation on "health, happiness and prosperity" from Claire Young, our own John Young's better 3/4 (way better than half!). Claire and their daughter Tricia were John's guests today.

Other Guests

Jon Wachter introduced Del Walker, a Bradley parent who has been helping with the Cub Scouts troop there. Del is the father of three kids who were Super Citizens, and spoke very highly of the program. Ralph Pedersen introduced Bill Bruno, an architect he met at the Chili Cook-off. Ron Carlson introduced his friend Al Jensen. Al lives in the same complex that Ron and his wife Ann Louise live. Tom Overton introduced his wife Sheryl, who also was encouraged to hear our speaker this morning, and we were joined by Jeanette Thompson, our Zone 8 Lt. Governor. Welcome all!

FRACSC first club's fundraiser. Great work Barry, and thanks to all participants!

We have 58 members in the Dime-A-Day program, thanks to the passionate efforts of Freddie Pasternack. The proceeds of the dime-a-day program go toward OI Foundation's program for scholarships, child Internet safety, and more. Our club has the highest number of participants — not just in Denver, not just in our district, and not just in the U.S., but the highest in Optimist International! That's outstanding! If you have not signed up yet, please complete the Dime-A-Day form attached to GUMS' distribution email and talk to Freddie.

Russ Paul leads the way in picking up after our Friday meetings and could use a few more hands at the conclusion of meetings to get the chairs and tables in order, so try and stay a couple of minutes afterwards and help out.

A Bit of Humor

Here are some luminaries:

- ◊ "America is the only country where a significant proportion of the population believes that professional wrestling is real but the moon landing was faked." David Letterman
- ◊ "Men are like linoleum floors. Lay'em right and you can walk all over them for years." May West
- ◊ "You know you're a redneck if your home has wheels and your car doesn't." Jeff Foxworthy
- ◊ "Wood burns faster when you have to cut and chop it yourself." Harrison Ford

PUTS UP A FIGHT WHEN YOU TRY TO TAKE IT

◊ "If life were fair, Elvis would still be alive today and all the impersonators would be dead." Johnny Carson

The Joy of Optimism

Our own, John Young

Our speaker today was one of our club's 43 charter members from the 1976 formation, and one of the 8 still active — John Young! A member of Monaco South since July, 1976.

John took the opportunity to give some history of the club and the impact it has had on his life. He shared that we have 33 club members who have been with us less than two years, so this presentation was timely!

John passed out a list of 25 of his favorite quotation topics, so that members could select topics of interest and John would share the collection he has developed over the years. John gave what he felt was the profile of a MSOC member - a man with a big heart, who is caring and trying to make the world better place, has a "there you are" instead of "here I am" attitude, and is inspired by our creed. John estimates he's recited the creed 1,859 times at meetings since he joined.

John took his opportunity to present a gift to a member he acknowledged as a huge club contributor - Joe Marci. John presented Joe with a Louisville Slugger baseball bat emblazoned with "Joe Marci: Grandslam hitter MSOC." Joe happily received the gift while noting that those from upstate New York preferred Adirondack bats!

John Young, charter member since 1976 and has fostered the true meaning of the Optimist Creed.

Over the years John has sponsored 54 new club members, and encouraged us all to be on the lookout for the next new one — that is the greatest gift you can give back to Monaco South! The club changes lives with a magical power. John shared how meaningful his participation in the club has been to him and his family over the years. Dr. Ed Fankhauser founded the club, and John developed a genealogy of club for the first 20 years with sponsors recognized. John concluded his presentation by unveiling his T-shirt - one of the 12,359 Super Citizen shirts that he has orchestrated getting printed over the years!

Identifying Characteristics of Optimists

Compliments of John Young — Note all of John's handouts will be shared once they are assembled.

The Optimist ...

... lives well, laughs often and loves much, looks for the best in others, gives the best he has, and leaves the world a better place than he found it.

... knows that happiness does not depend on who you are or what you have: it depends solely on what you think.

... knows that regrets don't come from trying and not succeeding. Not trying your hardest to do something you dream of is what makes you have regrets.

... in honor and integrity so that their self-esteem is not miserable.

... goes after creating their highest goals and visions, and does not wish and dream they will just happen on their own.

... knows that a good life has a fair amount of fun, adventure, play, and love mixed in with hard work, self-discipline, routine, and chores.

THE OPTIMIST CRED — Promise Yourself . . .

To be so strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.
 To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.
 To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.
 To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.
 To think only of the best, to work only for the best, and to expect only the best.
 To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.
 To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
 To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.
 To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.
 To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear, and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
